

Netley Abbey Junior Curriculum Map Year Three Spring

English- Writing, Reading and SPAG

- Stanley's Stick - imaginative story writing based around drama and mimicking the story
- Poetry - Shape poems about mountains
- Persuasive writing: - Letters written to the Friends' Association
- Historical settings: The Prince, the Cook and the Cunning King by Terry Deary.
- Themes and conventions of reading and writing stories from the past.
- Instructions: How to Catch a Gruffalo
- Non-chronological reports: Fact File about a Gruffalo
- Reading: Recording information from non-fiction texts
- Inference: reading between the lines
- SPAG: Homophones, prefixes, suffixes, prepositional phrases, extended noun phrases

Maths

- Ordering measures, reading measures for capacity, length and weight
- Recognising right angles in 2D shapes, measuring angles smaller, equal to or larger than a right angle
- Fractions of shape, number, ordering fractions and finding equivalent fractions
- Formal written methods of all four operations
- Properties of 3D shape and making 3D shapes
- Counting in multiples of 4, 8, 50 and 100
- Mental methods for addition and subtraction with money and measures

Science

- Rocks and Soils
- Rock types and how rocks are formed
- The properties of rocks and other materials
- Permeability of different types of soil
- Green plants
- Parts of the flower
- Seed dispersal
- Transportation of water in a plant (roots and stems)

Computing

- Understanding e-safety and the effect of cyber bullying
- Using the internet to search safely and introducing the safe search-engine 'swiggle'
- Inputting data and recording information on a spread sheet
- Using formulae in spread sheets using excel

Netley Abbey Junior Curriculum Map Year Three Spring

Humanities (Geography and History)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Iron Age: Survival - settlements, tools, weapons, hunting and clothing. Prehistoric timelines, interpreting sources of evidence, Bronze Age artefacts, Iron Age changes and farming.• Mountains: Locate mountain ranges in different continents and countries. Discuss how mountain land is used for tourism and agriculture, research key facts and information on the Himalayas, the Andes, the Alps and the Rocky Mountains.
RE (Religious Education)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Christianity: Understand what Easter means to Christians. Discuss the changing emotions during the Easter story• Judaism: Story of Moses freeing the Israelites from Egypt. Link with modern-day captivity and slavery. What does it mean to be free?
Art/DT	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mountain Collage: Studying Josie Russell's collage techniques. Choosing materials of different textures, colours and patterns. Layering and pasting.• Moving Monsters: Operating and building pneumatic systems. Designing and evaluating a 3D model with a theme and purpose. (Link with Gruffalo fact files)
PE (Physical Education)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dance of the Mountain King - looking at themes, expression, levels of movement and sequences of shape.• Football: Ball skills - shooting, dribbling, controlling the ball. Team work.• Gymnastics: Shape and balance.• Netball - shooting, passing, footwork, team work.
PSHE (Personal, Social, Health Education)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Friends for Life• Life- bus: Meet the Brain. How major systems in the body work. How our brain sends a message to the muscles in our bodies.
Music:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understanding rhythmic notation in African drumming• Understanding 4-bar rhythms• Knowing the names of the African percussion instruments• Learning about rhythm in playing recorder and ukulele• Singing• Plucking and strumming in ukulele• Learning notation on the recorder
MFL (Modern Foreign Languages)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Spanish: Los Números: numbers 12-30, Pollito chicken: singing a popular rhyme, ¿Qué tal? Understanding and communicating feelings, Los Meses y Cumpleaños: months and birthdays